IN HOC SIGNO VINCES.

THE question raised by the Democratic House is not whether men who served in the Indian wars and afterwards in the Confederate army shall be barred by the latter service for any pension for the former. The Democratic House insisted on pensioning the survivors of the Southern Indian wars while leaving out those in the Northwest. It may be, of course, that the demands of economy press hard on the Democrats, and they do not feel able to pension Northern as well as Southern Indian fighters, but it looks mightily as though they had arranged their bill to pension such frontiersmen as afterwards acquired a Confederate record while leaving out those who fought on the Union side.

BOB BUSHNELL, the embezzling C. and O. Railway clerk of fashionable and sporting proclivities, has been taken to the Ohio Penitentiary with a squad of other convicts. He was not given notice of the intention of the officers until a few minutes before the hour for leaving. When told he must go he was greatly shocked, and begged for time and an opportunity to communicate with friends. His sentence is for three years at hard labor.

THE Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Times conveys this intelligence, which is the nature of real news: "Senator-elect Garrett S. Wall of Maysville came in this morning and took his seat. He is already known to a large number of the members and will be one of the most popular members of the Senate. He is a comparatively young man, one of the famous 'Kids' of the Ninth District, and a worthy successor to the popular Charley Poyntz, who resigned to become a Railroad Commissioner."

IN Mt. Sterling the burning out of a fuse on the electric circuit in front of Tom Rogers's store caused a live wire to drop to the pavement below and for a few minutes there was a startling exhibition of pyrotechnics. Several iron awnings adjoining became surcharged with the fluid and afforded much excitement and amusement for a large crowd which had gathered around. A colored man who had leaned against one of the posts was shocked into insensibility. Passers by who came into contact with the awnings received severe shocks and one gentleman, whose father and grandfather had died of paralysis, suddenly became rooted to the spot and thought he had a stroke of the same kind. Fortunately the current was turned off before any damage was done, and the wire removed.

WHERE THE PRESIDENTS SLEEP

The Last Resting Place of Men Who Made American History.

The Presidents of the United States have been buried in places very far apart.

Washington was buried at Mount Vernon, sixteen miles from Washington. John Adams beneath the portico of the Unitarian Church in Quincy, Mass. In the church stands a memorial slab in his honor, but the body lies in a vault almost directly under the entrance.

Thomas Jefferson was buried in the family cemetery at Monticello, Va. James Madison in the family burying-ground at Montpelier, Orange county, Va.

James Monroe in the Second Avenue Cemetery, between Second and Third streets, New York city, his grave being covered by a handsome open-work caging of iron.

John Quincy Adams was buried in the vault with his father in Quincy.

Andrew Jackson at the Hermitage, eleven miles from Nashville, Tenn., a domed temple covering his grave.

Martin Van Buren lies in the Reformed Church Cemetery of Kinderhook, N. Y. William Henry Harrison, first interred at Washington, was removed to North Bend, O., where his vault was, until recently, much neglected.

John Tyler was interred in Holywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., and no monument or stone has been erected over his grave.

James K. Polk lies at the corner of Vine and Union streets in Nashville, Tenn., an elegant monument under a canopy marking the spot.

The remains of Zachary Taylor were first interred in the Congressional Cemetery at Washington, thence they were removed to Taylor Cemetery, near Louisville, Ky.

Millard Fillmore was buried at the Forest Lawn Cemetery, near Buffalo, N. Y.

Franklin Pierce in Minot Cemetery, Concord, N. H.

The body of James Buchanan lies in Woodward Hill Cemetery, Lancaster, Pa.

Abraham Lincoln in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, Ill., under a magnificent monument.

Andrew Johnson was buried in a private inclosure at the top of a hill near Greenville, Tenn.

The remains of Grant were interred in a vault in Riverside Park, New York city.

Garfield in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland.

Arthur in the Rural Cemetery at Albany, N. Y.

THE tax rate at Paris has been fixed at $1 30 on the $100.

CINCINNATI has awarded a ten years contract for the removal of garbage from her streets, at $21,900 a year. The former price was $2,500 a year.

HARRY SPAULDING, who robbed the Postoffice at Coney Island, plead guilty and is held in $500 for appearance before the Federal Court at Frankfort.

THE L. and N. Railroad has started to comply with the new "separate coach law" by providing special cars for the colored people on its trains.

THE gross receipts of the Cincinnati Festival were between $42,000 and $43,000, and the expenses about $40,000, making a profit of from $2,000 to $3,000.

THIS will popularize that church with the ladies. The conference of the Methodist Protestant Church has stricken the work "obey" from the marriage service.

COAL miners at Altamont, Pittsburgh, North Jelico and Pineville are on a strike. The operators proposed a reduction of wages and the men refused to accept it.

THE enterprising Cincinnati Post prints a very good likeness of Colonel L. H. Williams of Ripley, who is a candidate for Department Commander of the G. A. R.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the death sentence of Nelson Lewis, colored, convicted of the murder near Louisville of George Dean, colored. The Governor will fix the day.

THE entertainment to be given by the Young Ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church will not be postponed, but will be given as previously announced, Friday, June 3d.

THE Superior Court has affirmed the Fleming Circuit Court's judgment in the case of Scruggs vs. Meyer & Co. W. J. Hendrick, J. P. McCartney, R. Reid Rogers for applicant, J. H. Power for appellee.

WILLIAM BOWLING shot and killed Harry Dent in Carrie Martin's ill-shaped house at Louisville. Both were former reputable citizens, whom cards and whisky had plotted to the bad. The quarrel was over the affections of the Martin woman.

JACKSON WINS.

The Australian Not in It After the Second Round.

In the Tenth Round He Was Knocked Senseless by the Negro.

Slavin, However, Was as Game as the First Time He Met Jackson—London Swellidom Witnesses the Contest in Evening Dress.

LONDON, May 31.—The National club was crowded to suffocation Monday night with spectators all in evening dress anxious to witness the Slavin-Jackson fight. The entrance became so much obstructed by the crowd that the owner of the building refused to allow any more to enter without a ticket. Two hundred policemen kept order outside the club house, where a surging mass had assembled with the expectation of being admitted.

Lord Lonsdale opened the proceedings with a speech, and the fight then began. After the first few rounds it was evident that Slavin had no chance against the bigger man, yet he always came up pluckily at the call of time. In the tenth round Slavin was knocked helpless against the ropes, being in a terrible condition from the fearful punishment he had received. An innovation was having the ring twenty feet in diameter instead of twenty-four. Among the solid bets recorded are one of £500 to £200 on Slavin, made at the Victoria club, and one of £200 to £100, also on Slavin, at the Criterion. This battle has been discussed and talked about for months by the sportsmen of England, Australia and America. Slavin was clearly outfought and outgeneraled at nearly all points. The negro is his superior in every respect, save in pluck, of which Slavin has plenty.

DECOYED TO DEATH.

A Sensational Double Killing at Council Bluffs, Ia.—One Man Dying, Another Dead, on the Street.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., May 31.—W. F. Jones, manager of the Sandwich (Ill.) Manufacturing Co., who has been under the influence of liquor for several days, with a considerable sum of money in his possession, was called from his wife's side just when he had reached home Monday night by a message, stating that his presence was required at the Ogden house. That was the last seen of Jones until his body was found this morning in a dark street near the hotel. He had a bullet-hole in his abdomen, and his skull had been crushed. He had a revolver clutched in his hand, and was still alive, but speechless.

A block away, close to a blood-stained hack, the dead body of one Jack Wade was discovered, with a pistol wound in the breast. Wade also had a revolver. The driver of the hack, Tom Crogan, has since been arrested, with a man named James Mayer. The indications are that the double tragedy occurred at the point where Wade's body was found, and that Jones' supposed corpse was dragged through the yard of a disreputable house with the intention of concealment, when Jones, recovering, again showed fight. Mayer, Wade and Crogan are all hard characters, and are supposed, with robbery for a motive, to have sent the message, which decoyed Jones from home. It is probable that he did not succumb when struck on the head, and that a remarkable pistol duel between himself and Wade followed on the lonely street at midnight.

HE STILL LIVES.

Extraordinary Adventures of Charles Weems, the Negro Accused of Assaulting a White Woman.

MORRISTOWN, Tenn., May 31.—Chas. Weems the Negro charged with attempting to assault a white woman at Chattanooga on May 19, is in jail at this place. His flight, in charge of officers, from place to place, to escape lynchings, has been told in the press dispatches. In five days he traveled over 5,000 miles, saw over 300 mobs ready to lynch him, was refused admission to a score of jails, traveled over the worst mountains of the state, was shot at, visited three states, and was so near two others that he could see them. If the story could be told in all its details of stratagems, narrow escapes, exciting encounters, wild rides, lonely walks and agonies of suspense, it would outlive a novel. Weems claims the woman met him by appointment.

A Cloud Burst at Pine Bluff. PINE BLUFF, Ark., May 31.—This city and section, which has suffered from the overflow of the Arkansas river, experienced a cloud burst Monday, and the waters are backed still further up in the city. The gates of heaven seemed to open as the rain began falling, and the town was flooded. The rainfall was followed by a destructive hail-storm.

Grant Monument Fund. NEW YORK, May 31.—At Gen. Grant's tomb in Riverside park, Monday, Gen. Horace Porter announced to a large throng that the amount necessary for the erection of a monument to Gen. Grant had all been subscribed.

Bank Ex-President Arrested. KEARNEY, Neb., May 31.—S. St. John, ex-president of the defunct Commercial and Savings bank, of this city, was arrested Monday on a charge of receiving deposits with a knowledge of insolvency.

Fair Ground Sold. CINCINNATI, O., May 31.—The Pick-away county fair grounds were sold by the sheriff at a suit of the administrators of the estate of Wm. Doane against the share-holders. Geo. Zwicker was the purchaser at $10,000.

Drunk Ammonia. SPRINGFIELD, O., May 31.—The two-year-old son of William Gladfield, of West Pleasant street, drank the contents of a two-ounce bottle of ammonia Monday afternoon and is in a critical condition.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

—ADOPTED BY—

THE PUBLIC LEDGER CO.

OF MAYSVILLE, KY.

ART. 1. Be it known that William H. Cox, Thomas A. Davis, W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., Samuel T. Hickman, A. M. J. Cochran, M. C. Russell, George L. Cox and Allen A. Edmonds, have this day associated themselves together and become incorporated under and by virtue of Chapter 56 of the General Statutes of the State of Kentucky as The Public Ledger Company and by that name shall sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and shall have perpetual succession, and a common seal, with power to alter same at pleasure.

ART. 2. The capital stock of said Corporation shall be $5,000, divided into shares of $10 each, and the same shall be transferable by written assignment on the certificate, and when transferred the certificate for same shall be surrendered to the Company and canceled, and new ones issued in lieu thereof.

ART. 3. This Corporation is organized for the purpose of publishing a newspaper in the city of Maysville, and distributing the same throughout the state of Kentucky, and for the carrying on of a general newspaper business in said city and state.

ART. 4. The principal place of business of said Corporation shall be at Maysville, Ky. The capital stock of said Corporation may be increased at a meeting of the stockholders of the company, and the stock of the company may be sold or otherwise disposed of, and the proceeds thereof may be used for any purpose not inconsistent with the objects of the corporation.

ART. 5. The Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the 1st Monday in March of each year. If, for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall continue as such until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 6. The Directors shall choose from their number a President and Vice-President, and from said number or the stockholders a Secretary and Treasurer, or, if they see fit, they may combine the two offices into one. They shall elect an Editor, and may elect an assistant to the Editor, both of whose duties and tenure of office they may fix and prescribe by by-laws of the Company, which by-laws a majority of the Directors may adopt for the management of the Company's affairs.

ART. 7. The Company shall not incur an indebtedness exceeding, in the aggregate, at any one time, a sum equal to one-half of the capital stock paid in.

ART. 8. The private property of the stockholders of this Company shall be exempt from all debts or liabilities of the Corporation.

ART. 9. The Corporation shall begin when it shall have organized, as provided for herein, and shall continue as long as may be necessary, according to law.

In witness whereof, the said incorporators have hereunto set their hands this 10th day of March, 1892.
